

Voter Guide

New York 22nd Congressional District

	Dan Lamb	Richard Hanna
Believes it is never acceptable to use torture on a detainee:	YES	*
Believes the International Committee of the Red Cross should have access to all detainees:	YES	*
Believes all U.S. interrogators should follow the “Golden Rule” during interrogations:	YES	*
Believes the U.S. should never engage in rendition for torture:	YES	*
Supports videotaping interrogations:	YES	*
Supports reviewing the criminal justice system to identify ways to save money, improve prisoner treatment, and better protect public safety.	YES	*
Supports limitations on aid to foreign security forces that torture:	YES	*
Supports reasonable limitations on the use of solitary confinement:	YES	*

Notes: * Richard Hanna did not return the NRCAT Action Fund’s questionnaire on torture despite being contacted multiple times.

Visit www.nrcatactionfund.org to find our Congressional Vote Scorecards and other informative election resources or to make a donation in support of our work to end U.S.-sponsored torture.